Acknowledgement of Country

The University of New England respects and acknowledges that its people, courses and facilities are built on land, and surrounded by a sense of belonging, both ancient and contemporary, of the world's oldest living culture. In doing so, UNE values and respects Indigenous knowledge systems as a vital part of the knowledge capital of Australia.

We recognise the strength, resilience and capacity of the Aboriginal community and pay our respects to the Elders past, present and future.

Why now?

- Signals of urgency from early adopters
- Response to Sentinels
- Workshop to provide a 'Running Start'

The Gathering

- Significant collective knowledge in Australia
- Past and Current Projects
- Impactful solutions will require a team effort
- Signals affirmation of the urgency

Responsive Road Map

- What can industry expect when?
 - Matched to needs
- Communication, Communication, Communication
- Collaboration on the delivery of tools
